2.1 Scope of Confidential Information.

As used in this Agreement, “Confidential Information” means all information that is provided or made available to the Recipient by the Company in connection with the engagement of the Recipient that concerns the Company, its assets or its business operations, communicated to the Recipient in written, electronic, or oral form. Confidential Information includes without limitation:

- (a) business plans, financial models, fundraising strategies, investor communications, market analyses, pricing structures, sales forecasts, and expansion strategies.
- (b) details about clients, customers, partners, suppliers, and vendors, including contact information, contractual terms, pricing, and any proprietary data shared in the course of business relationships.
- (c) personal and professional information about Associates, and including compensation details, performance evaluations, and organizational structures.
- (d) Software developed by or licensed to the Contractor, source code, object code, algorithms, APIs, software architecture, specifications, diagrams, flowcharts, bug reports, and other technical or operational materials. The term “Software” as used in this Clause refers to software in various stages of development or any product thereof and includes without limitation the literal elements of a program (source code, object code or otherwise), its audio-visual components (menus, screens, structure or organization), any human or machine readable form of the program, and any writing or medium in which the program or the information therein is stored, written or described, including without limitation, diagrams, flowcharts, designs, drawings, specification, models, data, bug reports and customer information;
- (e) AI models, training data, machine learning models, training datasets (including proprietary or licensed data), data labelling methodologies, and model evaluation metrics.
- (f) development processes, product roadmaps, design documents, technical specifications, and testing protocols.
- (g) research and innovation information related to ongoing or planned research and development activities, including experimental results, unpublished papers, and collaboration details with academic or research institutions.
- (h) intellectual property, and any other proprietary rights or materials, whether registered or unregistered.
- (i) operational information, internal policies, procedures, financial records, audit reports, and any other information pertaining to the internal workings of the Company.
- (j) security and infrastructure, details about the Recipients, IT systems, security protocols, network architecture, and any vulnerabilities or incident reports.

- (k) third-party information and any other confidential information received from third parties under confidentiality agreements, including but not limited to partners, clients, and service providers.
- (l) internal records and documentation, including manuals, reports, memoranda, internal communications, correspondence, business records, agreements, policies, procedures, research material, training documents, and development data;
- (m) any and all physical and digital documents, models, sketches, or other materials provided to the Employee, or generated by the Recipient in the course of his/her employment;
- (n) any other information of a third party, including vendor or customer or supplier or service provider, which, by its nature or the context of its disclosure, should reasonably be considered confidential, even if not specifically designated as such;
- (o) any information which the Recipient has access to by virtue of having access to systems, networks, databases, computers, telecommunications or other information systems owned, controlled or operated by the Company or any third party engaged by the Company;
- (p) any information which the Employee is under a legal, regulatory, or contractual obligation to maintain in confidence or which the Employee otherwise considers proprietary or sensitive.
- (q) any other information that is either marked as 'confidential' or that by its nature would from the circumstances of disclosure be reasonably considered to be confidential to the Company.

2.2 General Exclusions.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following will not constitute Confidential Information for purposes of this Agreement:

- (a) information that was already in the Recipient's possession before receipt from the Company, as evidenced by written records, provided that such information was obtained lawfully and without an obligation of confidentiality to the Company or another person or entity;

- (b) information that was obtained by the Recipient from a source other than the Company or its representatives, provided that such information was lawfully obtained and is not subject to another confidentiality agreement or obligation of secrecy to the Company or another person or entity;
- (c) information that is or becomes generally available to the public, other than as a result of a disclosure by the Recipient, directly or indirectly;
- (d) information that was independently developed by or for the Recipient without reference to the Confidential Information, as evidenced by written records.

3. Obligations

3.1 Protection of Confidential Information.

The Recipient agrees that he/she will: (i) hold the Confidential Information in confidence and protect it as confidential and proprietary utilizing highest standards of care appropriate for the artificial intelligence and software industry; (ii) use the Confidential Information only as required during the ordinary course of his/her employment. As agreed between the Parties, the Recipient will be and remain solely and completely liable and responsible for any breaches of this Agreement committed by him/her directly or indirectly. The provisions of the Agreement for the protection of Confidential Information shall apply notwithstanding that the Recipient has unauthorized or inadvertently obtained access to or otherwise come into possession of such Confidential Information.

3.2 Compelled Disclosure.

If the Recipient is requested or required by applicable law or legal process to disclose any part of the Confidential Information, the Recipient will (to the extent permitted by law) provide the Company with prompt notice of any such request or requirement and reasonably cooperate in any efforts by the Company to seek an appropriate protective order or other remedy or otherwise challenge or narrow the scope of such request. If a protective order or other remedy is not obtained, the Recipient will furnish only that portion of the Confidential Information that it is advised by written opinion of a counsel, is legally required, and the Recipient will exercise reasonable efforts to obtain reliable assurance that such Confidential Information will continue to be held in confidence.

3.3 Whistleblower Protection:

Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to prevent the Recipient from:

- (a) reporting in good faith any suspected unlawful conduct, harassment, fraud, or violation of applicable laws or regulations to any competent governmental, regulatory, or law enforcement authority; or
- (b) cooperating or participating in any inquiry, investigation, proceeding, or hearing conducted by such authorities. The Recipient acknowledges that any such lawful disclosure or cooperation shall not constitute a breach of this Agreement, nor shall the Recipient be required to notify the Company prior to making such reports, to the extent such reporting is protected or permitted under applicable law.

3.4 Data Protection

(a) The Recipient must:

- (i) Process Personal Data only upon the documented instructions of the Company and for the specific purposes of fulfilling its duties under the Governing Agreement. The Recipient shall not process Personal Data for any other purpose unless required by applicable law, in which case the Recipient shall inform the Company of that legal requirement before processing, unless that law prohibits such information on important grounds of public interest;
- (ii) Adhere to the security measures and Data Protection Requirements specified by the Company to safeguard all Confidential Information, including Personal Data, from unauthorized access, use, copying, or disclosure. The Company reserves the right to conduct audits to verify compliance with these standards;
- (iii) Immediately, and in any event no later than 12 (twelve) hours or in accordance with the applicable Data Protection Requirements, whichever is shorter, following the discovery of any incident that involves or reasonably may involve the accidental or unlawful collection, destruction, unauthorized access to, use, alteration, disclosure, processing, or loss of any Confidential Information or any other suspected breach or compromise of the security, confidentiality or integrity of any Confidential Information, ("Security Incident") notify the Company of any suspected or actual unauthorized access, use, copying or disclosure of any Confidential Information;
- (iv) Provide to the Company any and all information relating to such Security Incident and assistance the Company requires to enable it to discharge its obligations under Data Protection Requirements including all information required to be notified to the supervisory authority pursuant to applicable Data Protection Requirements and resources and assistance as are required by the Company in connection with such notification and for the Company's notification to the relevant data subjects of such Security Incident, as applicable;

- (v) Immediately take all steps necessary to prevent or stop, and comply with all reasonable directions of the Company regarding the suspected or actual breach; and
- (vi) Provide such assistance as is reasonably requested by the Company in relation to any proceedings that the Company may take as a result of such suspected or actual breach.

For the purposes of this Clause,

"Data Protection Requirements" shall include, to the extent applicable, (i) the Digital Personal Data Protection Act 2023 (India) ("DPDP Act") (ii) APAC Data Protection Requirements; (iii) European Data Protection Requirements; (iv) LATAM and MEA Data Protection Requirements; (v) the California Consumer Privacy Act ("CCPA") (vi) USA Data Protection Requirements; (vii) mandatory industry rules and standards including, to the extent applicable, the Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard ("PCI-DSS"); and (viii) any and all other applicable laws related to data protection, data security, marketing, privacy, or the processing of Personal Data and as may be specified by the Company from time to time. Further, the Employee is expected to adhere to and follow at all times: (i) the Data Protection Addendum (the "DPA"); and (ii) Meta's Information Security Terms which are hereby incorporated by reference into this Agreement.

"Personal Data" means any information in any form, whether true or not, that identifies, relates to, describes, is capable of being associated with, or could be linked directly, or indirectly, to or used to identify, contact or locate a natural person including by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, financial, cultural or social identity of that natural person. The term "Personal Data" includes any "personal information," "personal data," "personally identifiable information," "nonpublic personal data," or similar terms as defined by Data Protection Requirements and also covers information of juristic persons and deceased natural persons where required under Data Protection Requirements.

- (b) Unless required by Data Protection Requirements, the Recipient shall not notify or make any statement (or provide any documents) to any third party (including the media, vendors, consumers, relevant regulators and supervisory authorities and individuals affected by a Security Incident) about such Security Incident and/or matters concerning any Confidential Information, without the prior written approval of the Company. Where the Recipient is legally required to make a statement (or provide any documents) without the approval of the Company, the Recipient shall promptly provide to the Company a copy of any such statements or documents unless prohibited by applicable law.

4. USE OF AI TOOLS AND DATA

4.1. The Recipient is strictly prohibited from using any Confidential Information, including but not limited to client data or Personal Data, for the purpose of training, fine-tuning, or otherwise developing any artificial intelligence or machine learning models, whether for personal or commercial use, without the express prior written consent of the Company.

4.2. The Recipient shall not use any third-party AI tools, platforms, or services for processing or analyzing Confidential Information without obtaining prior written approval from the Company. The Company shall maintain a list of approved AI tools and require the implementation of appropriate safety and security controls before granting such approval.

5. SANCTION COMPLIANCE

5.1. The Recipient represents and warrants that it is not a person or entity, nor is it owned or controlled by a person or entity, that is subject to any economic or trade sanctions administered or enforced by any governmental authority, including but not limited to the United States, the European Union, the United Nations, or India ("Sanctioned Person"). The Recipient shall not, in connection with its engagement, engage in any dealings or transactions with any Sanctioned Person or in any jurisdiction that is the subject of comprehensive sanctions.

6. Term and Termination

6.1 Term; Termination; Survival.

This Agreement is co-terminus with the Governing Agreement, unless it is terminated earlier by the Company. Termination or expiry of this Agreement does not release the Recipient from any obligations accrued prior to such termination or expiry. The Recipient's obligations with respect to the Company's Confidential Information will survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement in perpetuity and shall continue to apply for so long as such Confidential Information remains confidential, proprietary, or trade secret in nature, regardless of whether the Employment Agreement or this Agreement remains in effect.

6.2 Post Employment Reminders

The Company may, from time to time, send written reminders to the Recipient regarding continuing confidentiality obligations under this Agreement, and the Recipient agrees that such reminders shall not constitute an amendment or waiver but a reaffirmation of the Recipient's obligations.

6.3 Return of Materials.

- 6.3.1. Upon termination, expiry or upon the written request by the Company (whichever occurs first), the Recipient must promptly return or permanently destroy all the Confidential Information belonging to the Company, including, without limitation, all copies, extracts, reproductions, adaptations, or summaries thereof, whether maintained in physical, electronic, or any other form. The Recipient shall also ensure that all such Confidential Information is permanently deleted and removed from all storage systems, devices, or media under his/her possession, custody, or control.
- 6.3.2. within ten (10) days of such request, termination, or expiry (as applicable) the Recipient must return all Company property and assets, including but not limited to laptops, computers, electronic devices, storage drives, mobile phones, access cards, identification badges, and/or any workstation or other hardware materials provided to the Recipient for the purpose of employment. The Recipient may not retain, copy, transfer, or cause to be transferred any data, files, or materials contained in such Company property unless expressly authorized in writing by the Company.
- 6.3.3. the Recipient within the number of days as stated above in sub-clause (6.3.2) must provide a written confirmation to the Company certifying that all the Confidential Information has been duly returned or destroyed in accordance with the provisions of this Clause.
- 6.3.4. in the event the Recipient fails to return or destroy the Confidential Information, Company assets, or provide the certification within the stipulated period:
 - 6.3.4.1. the Company shall be entitled to withhold any and all payments, dues, or benefits payable to the Recipient under the Employment Agreement or otherwise; and
 - 6.3.4.2. without prejudice to its other rights and remedies under applicable law or in equity, the Company shall further be entitled to initiate appropriate legal proceedings, including but not limited to seeking injunctive relief, specific performance, and/or recovery of damages, costs, and losses arising from such non-compliance.

- 6.4. To the extent that the Recipient's duties involve the transfer of Personal Data across international borders, the Recipient shall comply with all applicable Data Protection Requirements governing such transfers. Where required, the Recipient agrees to enter into and abide by approved data transfer mechanisms, such as the Standard Contractual Clauses (SCCs) as mandated by the relevant data protection authorities, to ensure an adequate level of data protection.

7. Ownership and Title; No Warranty; No further Obligation

7.1. Ownership and Title.

All Confidential Information is and will remain the sole and exclusive property of the Company. The Recipient acquires no right, title or license to the Company's Confidential Information. The Recipient shall not claim, make or file any application for a patent, utility model, design right or other similar intellectual property right based upon or disclosing any Confidential Information.

7.2. Recipient Declarations

The Recipient declares that, prior to joining the Company, he/she has disclosed in writing to the Company any inventions, developments, or intellectual property that are owned solely by the Recipient and not related to the Company's business ("Prior IP"). Except for such Prior IP, all intellectual property conceived, developed, or created by the Recipient, whether solely or jointly with others, during the course of employment shall be deemed the exclusive property of the Company.

7.3. No Warranty.

All Confidential Information disclosed hereunder is disclosed on an "as is" basis with no warranties, express or implied, of any kind. The Company will have no liability relating to the use of its Confidential Information, or any errors or omissions in its Confidential Information.

8. Remedies

8.1. Injunctive Relief

The Recipient agrees that the Company may suffer irreparable harm and that monetary damages would not be a sufficient remedy for any breach or threatened breach of this Agreement. The Recipient therefore agrees that, in addition to any other contractual or legal or equitable remedies available, the Company will be entitled to specific performance and injunctive or other equitable relief as a remedy for any such breach or threatened breach. The Recipient further agrees that the Company will not be required to prove damages in order to avail itself of such equitable relief or any other relief provided under this Agreement.

8.2. Indemnification

8.2.1 The Recipient will indemnify, hold harmless, and defend the Company and its Affiliates, and their respective directors, officers, employees, agents, vendors, customers, service providers, representatives from and against any and all:

- a. losses, liabilities, damages, fines, awards, compensation, settlements, expenses, penalties, taxes, and costs (including attorneys' fees and court costs arising out of or in connection with any claim, demand, action, or proceeding made or brought by any third party against any of the Indemnified Parties.

8.2.2. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Recipient's obligation to indemnify shall specifically extend to any claim or proceeding arising out of or related to:

- a. any actual or alleged breach of any provision of this Agreement by the Recipient;
- b. any actual or alleged infringement of any intellectual property rights of the Company by the Recipient; and/or
- c. negligent, willful or reckless acts or omissions, dishonesty or fraud by the Recipient.

8.2.3. The Recipient's indemnification obligations under this Clause are independent of, and in addition to, any other rights or remedies available to the Company under law or equity and shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

8.3. Liquidated Damages

In addition to the foregoing, in case of an actual or threatened breach of this Agreement, the Recipient shall be liable to pay an amount equivalent to minimum of 10 times the gross annual CTC to the Company as specified in the Employment Agreement as liquidated damages to the Company, which is a genuine pre-estimate of the loss the Company would suffer (on account of the considerable time, effort, and resources being put in by the Company for the purposes of this Agreement and the Employment Agreement).

9. NON-SOLICITATION

- 9.1. For a period of twenty-four (24) months following the termination or expiry of the Recipient's engagement with the Company for any reason whatsoever (whether voluntary or involuntary), the Recipient shall not, directly or indirectly, for himself/herself or on behalf of any other person, firm, company, or entity:
- a. solicit, induce, persuade, encourage, or attempt to solicit or induce any employee, consultant, intern, advisor, or contractor of the Company to terminate or alter their relationship with the Company;
 - b. hire, employ, engage, or attempt to hire or engage any such employee, consultant, intern, advisor, or contractor with whom the Recipient had interactions, visibility, dealings, or access in the preceding twenty-four (24) months of the engagement;
 - c. solicit, divert, interfere with, or attempt to solicit or divert any Client, customer, prospect, opportunity, or business lead of the Company with whom the Recipient had contact, dealings, visibility, or access in the preceding twenty-four (24) months;
 - d. accept work, assignments, business, or consulting engagements directly or indirectly from any such Client, customer, or prospect where the Recipient had exposure or access to such Client during the term of engagement;
 - e. interfere with, disrupt, impair, or adversely affect any business relationship, contractual relationship, or ongoing engagement between the Company and any Client, vendor, supplier, or third party with whom the Recipient had visibility or interactions during the last twenty-four (24) months of the engagement.
- 9.2. The Recipient acknowledges that:
- a. this restriction is reasonable, necessary to protect the Company's Confidential Information, Client goodwill, and legitimate business interests;
 - b. this clause shall be interpreted harmoniously with the non-solicitation clause contained in the Employment Agreement; and
 - c. in the event of any inconsistency, the stricter or more protective obligation shall apply.
- 9.3. The obligations under this Clause shall survive termination or expiry of this Agreement and the Employment Agreement.

10. General Provisions

10.1. Notices

Any notice or other formal communication to be given under this Agreement shall be in writing and signed by or on behalf of the Party giving it and shall be sent to the other Party at its address and to the attention of such person as set-out below, unless that Party informs the other in writing that such address and/or person has changed. Notices will be deemed delivered when received by the recipient. The addresses of the Parties for the purpose of the aforesaid are:

10.2. Entire Agreement

This Agreement read with the Employment Agreement represents the entire understanding and agreement between the Parties with respect to this subject matter and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous agreements, negotiations, understandings and representations relating to the same subject matter. The recitals to this Agreement are hereby incorporated into and are part of this Agreement as if fully set forth herein. In case of any contradiction or repugnancy between the terms of this Agreement and the Employment Agreement, the terms of this Agreement shall prevail and the stricter obligation shall apply.

10.3. Amendments and Waivers

Amendments to and modifications of this Agreement must be in writing. Waivers of defaults or breaches under this Agreement must be in writing and signed by the Party waiving its rights. Waivers will not be construed as waivers of any subsequent defaults or breaches.

10.4. Assignment

Neither Party may assign this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other Party. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties' permitted successors and assigns.

10.5. Severability

Any provision of this Agreement that is determined to be invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction will be ineffective only to the extent of such determination without invalidating the remaining provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of such remaining provisions.

10.6. Non-disparagement

The Recipient agrees that he/she shall not make any statements, whether written, oral, electronic (whether on Social Media, through any Social Media Profile as defined under this Agreement, or other form of electronic communication) or otherwise, either intentionally or unintentionally including without limitation any post, upload, comment, message, share, or publication on any Social Media Platform, which are negative or disparaging of the Company or any of its officers, shareholders, directors, employees or members. The Recipient shall not induce others to disparage the Company or any of its officers, shareholders, directors, employees or members. The Recipient further undertakes that he/she will not, at any time, do anything which prejudices the goodwill or reputation of the Company. The Recipient is not to commit the Company to any other party outside of his/her authorised limits, which will be notified to him/her. Further, it is reiterated that, following the termination of this Agreement, the Recipient will not at any time represent himself as having any connection with the Company, save as a former employee.

10.7. Governing Law and Dispute Resolution

This Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India, other than its conflicts of laws provisions. All disputes arising out in connection of this Agreement shall be settled through arbitration as per the provisions of the Indian Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The proceedings of the Arbitration shall be in English, and the place of arbitration will be [Delhi, India]. Subject to the above, this Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of India, with the courts at [Delhi, India] having exclusive jurisdiction over any matters that are ancillary to the maintenance, prosecution, and support of the arbitration proceedings mandated hereby, and the Parties hereby submit to the jurisdiction of the said court for such matters. Except as permitted under this Agreement, or for the limited purpose of a Party enforcing its rights under this Agreement before a court of competent jurisdiction, neither Party will disclose the existence or terms of this Agreement.

10.8. Acknowledgement

The Recipient acknowledges that he/she has read and fully understood this Agreement, has had the opportunity to seek independent legal advice, and agrees to abide by all obligations, restrictions, and consequences set forth herein.

10.9. Signatures

A signature by facsimile transmission or other electronic means which allows the identity of the signer to be reasonably confirmed will be as good and binding as an original signature.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties have executed this Non-Disclosure Agreement by their duly authorized representatives in one or more counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original, effective as of the Effective Date.
